Dear FUMC Mexia,

We are just overwhelmed by your gracious hospitality and generosity. You have blessed our family so much this week. We really appreciate the pounding and all of those who took part or brought ice cream or cookies. Also, thanks so much to those who came last Wednesday to help us unload and unpack. We couldn't have done it without you, and we certainly appreciate your warm welcome. We look forward to getting to know all of you better in the coming weeks.

Several of our church members will leave this week for the McCurdy mission trip. In a very real way, they will be the hands and feet of Christ to those that they will serve. They also represent our church in this mission, and so, I invite you to join me in prayer for those that are going on the mission trip and for those that they serve.

In their absence, the Crossway Praise Team will lead in worship next Sunday. Also, we will be starting a new sermon series called God's Funny Bone, where we will look at laughter from scripture & how it informs our faith journey. Please join us in worship for this series, and please invite a friend or neighbor to join you.

In Christ's Service,

Kory Koch
